What is a sliding Window?

Large Viewing Area and Maximum Daylight. Brighten your home with a sliding patio door without sacrificing space. These patio doors are an excellent solution to gain access to your outdoor living area and illuminate your home with natural light. Made in aviation grade aluminum. Sliding patio doors open horizontally with at least one operable panel making them an excellent space saver. Large glass panels let more natural light into your home and can seamlessly extend your interior living spaces with an unobstructed view of the outdoors. The elegance and functionality of sliding glass doors contribute to the overall modern appeal of your living spaces.
