What is a aluminum folding door ?

Aluminum folding doors, also known as bi-fold doors, are a stylish and functional option for creating flexible living spaces. They consist of multiple panels that fold and stack to one or both sides, allowing for wide openings and seamless transitions between indoor and outdoor areas. Aluminum folding doors combine modern design and functionality, making them an excellent choice for enhancing indoor-outdoor living spaces. Their durability, energy efficiency, and aesthetic versatility make them suitable for both residential and commercial applications.

Application scenario recommendation

Home scenarios:
Balcony window sealing, living room partition, children's room safety door, taking into account both aesthetics and practicality Commercial scenarios:
shopping mall exhibition halls, office partitions, hotel banquet halls, enhancing the sense of transparency and grade of the space
Special requirements:
Villa courtyard entrance doors, resort area landscape doors, large-span opening design to enhance visual impact
